

STANDING RULES
CONEWANGO VALLEY COUNTRY CLUB

Updated March 24, 2021

The Standing Rules shall be changed or updated at the discretion of the Board of Directors.

MEMBERSHIP

Rules governing membership are defined in the CVCC By-Laws.

A “new member” for the purpose of qualifying for any special membership program, shall be considered a person or family who has not been a member of CVCC during any period of time during the past three (3) seasons.

Visit the CVCC website: www.conewangovalleycc.com to access the “CVCC Membership Categories, Privileges, and Associated Membership Costs” document located under “Important CVCC Links” for membership categories, dues, monthly minimums, monthly capital improvement & debt reduction fees and privileges for the current year.

Application forms for membership are available at the office and can also be found on the CVCC website: www.conewangovalleycc.com by clicking on the “Join CVCC” tab on the home page.

A member may not change his membership category to another category requiring a lesser dues structure during any given year once his membership choice has been selected unless given special permission by the Board of Directors.

The club office should be advised of category changes prior to March 1.

The spouse of an individual member (with the exception of Dining Memberships) may use all of the club facilities, i.e., pool, dining room and Tap Room.

Minor children (under the age of 12 years) of Individual Members may accompany their parent(s) on the course for the purpose of playing golf. Their presence should be arranged so as not to have an undesirable impact on other playing members.

A member with a Social membership and dependent children are eligible to play 72 holes of golf per year for each family member in either 9 or 18 hole increments by paying green fees. Arrangements to play must be made with the golf professional. When a Social member plays in a CVCC tournament, (regardless of the number of days in that tournament), it will be considered 1 (one) 18-hole round of golf.

Non-voting memberships include:

Student members shall be at least twelve (12) years of age and under twenty-six (26) years of age and be full-time students in accredited colleges or primary or secondary schools. They shall be entitled to the use of the golf, pool and dining room facilities.

Non-Resident members shall be defined as an individual and spouse (if applicable) twenty-one (21) years of age or older whose legal residence is not within a fifty (50) mile radius of Conewango Valley Country Club (CVCC).. They shall be entitled to the use of the Dining Room, Tap Room, and Pool facilities. The use of the golf facilities will be subject to the payment of appropriate green fees. The Board of Directors may limit the maximum number of non-resident members at its discretion. The Board of Directors may request proof of residence.

Dining members shall be defined as an individual and spouse (if applicable) twenty-one (21) years of age or older who desires to participate in a dining experience at Conewango Valley Country Club. This membership classification has no golf or pool privileges.

Corporate members are given an opportunity to utilize CVCC facilities for business purposes only. This membership is not to be used as an alternate form of personal membership. All clubhouse charges, green and pool fees must be charged to the corporation on a single monthly statement. Corporate members shall be entitled to the use of the Dining room, Tap Room, and Pool facilities. The use of the golf facilities will be subject to the payment of appropriate green fees.

GENERAL

GUESTS

Resident guests are defined as guests who live within a fifty (50) mile radius of the club. Resident guests are extended the privilege of playing not more than 72 holes of golf in one calendar year (paying green fees). A non-resident guest is defined as a guest visiting a member and resides more than fifty (50) miles from the club. A non-resident guest is extended unlimited privileges to play golf (paying green fees).

ALL GUESTS MUST BE REGISTERED BEFORE THE USE OF ANY CLUB FACILITIES. Records will be kept of all guests. When a resident guest has exhausted his/her privileges, they will be notified by the Board of Directors or golf professional in person or in writing. Members must accompany or sponsor guests in the Dining Room, Tap Room, on the golf course, or at the pool (exception: babysitter at the pool). At the time of guest registration, each member must fill out a charge slip for the appropriate guest fee. All guest fees will be billed on the monthly club statement.

Visit the CVCC website: www.conewangovalleycc.com to access the "CVCC Membership Categories, Privileges, and Associated Membership Costs" document located under "Important CVCC Links" for all guest fees for the current year.

Guest restrictions do not apply to special parties, receptions, events or outings, such as a golf outing given by a business for its employees or customers, or for which non-member use of the club has been authorized.

All golf member-guest events, including all scheduled days of play and one (1) practice session, will be considered one (1) guest visit. When a Social member plays in a CVCC tournament (regardless of the number of days in that tournament) it will be considered one (1) 18-hole round of golf.

SUGGESTIONS AND COMPLAINTS

Suggestions and/or complaints concerning service, operation of the club, and charges should be discussed with the Board of Directors or appropriate committee chairperson.

STANDING RULES
CONEWANGO VALLEY COUNTRY CLUB

Updated March 24, 2021

Suggestions may also be entered online or by visiting the CVCC website: www.conewangovalleycc.com under "Important CVCC Links."

BULLETIN BOARD

All special information pertaining to club functions, membership applications and notices from the Board of Directors shall be posted on the bulletin board located in the lobby of the clubhouse.

No notices, signs, or decorations may be placed anywhere in the clubhouse other than on the bulletin board without approval of the Board of Directors. The main bulletin board located in the lobby shall be used only for official club business.

DUES AND CHARGING PRIVILEGES

If membership dues are paid in full by October 31 of the preceding year, a 5% discount may be taken off the annual membership dues. All golf memberships (not including Social, Student, Corporate, Dining or Pool Memberships) will receive five (5) guest green fee passes in addition to the 5% discount by paying dues in full by October 31 of the preceding year. If a golf membership (not including Social, Student, Corporate, Dining or Pool Memberships) elects not to take advantage of the October 31 deadline but pays their membership dues in full by December 31 of the preceding year, they will receive five (5) guest green fee passes. Green fee passes may not be used by a CVCC member (with the exception of Non-Resident classification) All members are expected to have their dues paid in full by April 1st. A member is not entitled to use any of the club facilities until current year dues are paid in full. Annual dues, initiation fee (if applicable) and periodic annual assessments are all non-refundable.

MEMBERS (with the exception of Dining Members) ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR THE SIGNING OF THEIR CHARGE SLIPS. EACH MEMBER IS RESPONSIBLE FOR HIS/HER CORRECT MEMBER NUMBER ON ALL SLIPS. IF A MEMBER DOES NOT SIGN HIS/HER SLIP, HE/SHE IS STILL RESPONSIBLE FOR THE CHARGE. PLEASE CHECK THE NUMBER AND NAME BEFORE YOU SIGN. ALL CVCC MEMBERS ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR ANY OUTSTANDING GUEST FEES AND GUEST CHARGES.

The Board of Directors has found it necessary to take action against the small percentage of members who are frequently in arrears. As all small businesses, the club needs cash flow to operate properly. The Board has adopted the following policy to ensure that all members will pay their club bills in a timely manner.

All charges during a calendar month will be billed during the first five (5) days of the following month. The amount billed is payable during the month billed. All payment must be received (in-house) by the last day of the month in which the bill was issued.

Member accounts not paid before the first day of the month following the billing month are considered thirty (30) days past due. All accounts that are thirty (30) days past due will, in addition to other actions listed below, be charged 1.5% per month interest charge.

STANDING RULES
CONEWANGO VALLEY COUNTRY CLUB

Updated March 24, 2021

Member accounts past due sixty (60) days will, in addition to the interest charge specified above, result in the automatic suspension of the member. Suspended members shall have their names and delinquent amounts posted on the official club bulletin board and/or published in the newsletter. Suspended members may not use any club facilities.

Any member with amounts past due ninety (90) days will be requested by the Board of Directors to offer reasons why the member should not be expelled. Any account past due (90) days is subject to collection. If sent to collection, the member is responsible for all incurred collection fees.

Specific questions concerning charges should be directed to the office manager.

STANDING RULES
CONEWANGO VALLEY COUNTRY CLUB

Updated March 24, 2021

POLICY PROHIBITING HARASSMENT AND RETALIATION:

CVCC is committed to providing a work environment for its employees, a business environment for independent contractors and other individuals who do business with CVCC (“business associates”), and a social environment for its members, family members and guests that are free of harassment and other hostile, offensive or unwelcome conduct. CVCC members are prohibited from engaging in harassment of any kind, including sexual harassment or harassment based on race, color, national origin, religion, age or disability. Harassment of a CVCC employee, business associate, another member, a family member or a guest whether written, verbal, physical or visual will not be tolerated.

Definitions of Harassment:

Sexual Harassment involves:

1. The conditioning of benefits on acceptance of or submitting to sexual advances or sexual favors
2. Engaging in unwelcome written, verbal, physical or visual conduct of a sexual nature that creates an unwelcome, hostile or offensive work, business or social environment or unreasonably interferes with the work of an employee or business associate or the social environment or experience of another member, family member or guest.
3. May involve a range of subtle or not so subtle conduct including, but not limited to:
 - a. Unwanted sexual advances or requests for sexual favors
 - b. Sexually oriented, explicit or suggestive jokes, innuendo or pranks.
 - c. Comments about an individual’s body, sexual prowess, gestures, touching, hugging, leering or catcalls.
 - d. Display or circulation at CVCC (including through email) of pornography, pictures or other materials of a sexual nature.
4. Sexual harassment may involve individuals of the same or different gender.

Retaliation Prohibited:

Retaliation by any member against any employee, business associate, another member, family member or guest who reports harassment, or participates in an investigation of any allegation of harassment, is prohibited.

STANDING RULES
CONEWANGO VALLEY COUNTRY CLUB

Updated March 24, 2021

Investigation of Complaints:

Appropriate Manager, Committee Chairperson, entire or subset of Board of Directors will investigate all complaints of harassment or retaliation promptly, thoroughly and impartially. The investigation may include individual interviews with those involved in the incident or incidents giving rise to the complaint and, where necessary, with others who may have observed the alleged conduct or may have other relevant knowledge or information.

Disciplinary Action:

1. Verbal or written warning or reprimand
2. Fine
3. Suspension of membership for a specified or indefinite period of time. During which the member and/or his or her family members will be prohibited from using the golf course, clubhouse and/or other CVCC facilities or otherwise exercising any rights or privileges of membership.
4. Expulsion from CVCC and forfeiture and termination of membership

A family member or guest who engages in harassing or retaliatory conduct will be subject to disciplinary action by the Board of Directors:

1. Verbal or written warning or reprimand
2. Fine
3. Suspension of CVCC privileges, including the use of the golf course, clubhouse and/or other CVCC facilities for a specified or indefinite period of time.
4. Revocation or termination of the privilege to use the golf course, clubhouse and/or other CVCC facilities.

The disciplinary action that may be imposed for a particular violation of this policy will depend upon the nature of the violation and the conduct and circumstances involved. The Board of Directors may, but shall not be required to, impose less severe disciplinary action for a first offense, or engage in progressive discipline, if the conduct and circumstances warrant such action. The Board of Directors reserves the right, however to take any disciplinary action that it deems appropriate in response to a violation of this policy, up to and including the expulsion of a member from CVCC or the termination of a family member's privileges at CVCC.
